Re: Jaffe v. City of New York, et al., No. 19-cv-7024 (LAP)

Your Honor:

I write as counsel to Plaintiff Joanne Jaffe, with the knowledge and approval of Assistant Corporation Counsel Larry Profeta, to request that the status conference scheduled for November 9, 2022, be adjourned to a later date—possibly in early February 2023—that is convenient to the Court. The initial date was set to follow the completion of document production and depositions. That was set for October 31, 2022, and has been reset to January 31, 2023.

New counsel on the case need time to prepare. We are working together on the City's remaining collection of discoverable documents and on rescheduling the depositions. Although we anticipate that legal issues may arise that require the Court's assistance, we believe that we can get a great deal accomplished without the immediate need for a conference.

Respectfully submitted,
